REF LNG-COOKIES-V1.0

Cookie policy

The short answer: we don’t set advertising or analytics cookies. Here is the little that may be stored, and how you control it.

Version v1.0 · Effective 14 November 2026 · 8 sections · 10 clauses

AT A GLANCE

A plain-language summary. The numbered sections below are what applies.

- No advertising cookies. No analytics cookies. No tracking in the command menu or anywhere else.
- Our hosting may set strictly necessary security cookies to keep the site safe.
- You can block or delete cookies in your browser at any time.

1 What cookies are

1.1 Cookies are small text files a website asks your browser to keep. Sites use them to remember things between pages, to stay secure, and sometimes to track people for ads. Similar tools, such as local storage, work in much the same way.

2 No advertising or analytics cookies

2.1 We don’t set advertising or analytics cookies on this website, and we don’t follow you around the web.

2.2 The command menu and the rest of the site keep no tracking: searching, browsing and opening pages don’t record who you are.

3 Strictly necessary security cookies

3.1 Our hosting may set strictly necessary cookies to protect the site, for example to tell real visitors apart from automated attacks. They are used only for security, not to show you ads or build a profile, and the site can’t run safely without them.

4 What stays on your device

4.1 The site has no accounts, no theme setting and no shopping basket, so there is nothing personal for it to remember in your browser between visits.

5 Game trailers

5.1 Game pages may show a trailer in an embedded video player set to its privacy-enhanced mode. The video provider may store data in your browser once you press play, under its own policy.

6 Our games and their websites

6.1 Each game and its own website have their own privacy policies, which explain what they store: Ludo Fighters, NPL Cricket League and Game Collection.

7 How to control cookies

7.1 Every major browser lets you see, block and delete cookies, usually under Settings then Privacy or Site data. You can also use a private window, which clears cookies when you close it.

7.2 If you block strictly necessary cookies, parts of the site, such as the contact form, may not work.

8 Changes and questions

8.1 If we ever add a cookie that isn't strictly necessary, we'll update this page first and ask before setting it. Questions go to hello@lacspace.com. Our wider approach is in the privacy policy.
